STREET EXTENSION

Railway Cars Will Have Cleveland Millionaire's New Complete Double Track in the Fall.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU. ALEXANDRIA, VA., JULY 26.

The work of extending Cameron street west to the city limits and of preparing the roadbed across the old fair grounds at the head of King street is in progress by the electric railway compa

When the new track is laid, cars from Washington to this city, after crossing Hooff's run at the head of King street, will turn to the north and cross the old fair grounds and then turn into Cameron street extended and thus come into the city as far as Columbus street, where they will turn into King street, as at present.

The cars going to Washington will use the King street track, its entire length, as now. The laying of the new rail-way tracks will give the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway Company a complete double track from Washington, D. C., to Columbus street in this city. The only single track then bus street to Royal street, here. As there is already a switch at the intersection of King and Washington streets. there will be no danger of collisions. The #### Marriage of Miss Simpson.

Announcement has just been made of the marriage in this city by the Rev. C. D. Bulla, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, last Tuesday evening of Miss Florence Pierce Simpson, daughter of Gilbert and Laura Simpson, to Paul Raleigh Bradshaw. Mr. and Mrs. Erudshaw will reside in this city.

Miss Conway Buried Today.

The funeral of the late Miss Margaret Catharine Conway was held at the home of Mrs. Lucy B. Smith, at the corner of Duke and Columbus streets, this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev C. D. Bulla, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. South, and by the Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington District of the Methodist Episcopal Church. South. The remains were sent to Stafford county, where the burial will take place at 3 o'clock this afterneon in the family burying ground at Glencairne.

RAINEY IS TO PAY IN ALEXANDRIA $650,000 FOR YACHT

Boat Will Be Veritable

Palace.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 26.—Albert S. Chesebrough, a designer of this town, has been commissioned to furnish plans for one of the largest steam yachts in the world, and has already drawn the lines of the boat for Ray A. Rainey, of Cleveland and New York.

The craft will be built at shipyards on the Clyde, in Scotland. She will have a ength over all of 280 feet, a depth of the one now being completed. more than 20 feet, and a 36-foot beam. She will be built in the main of steel, and will be lavishly fitted up. The boat will probably cost more than $650,000, and will carry a crew as large as, if not larger than, any similar craft affoat. In its outline the new boat will closely resemble the steam yacht Alvina built several years ago by Lawley, of Boston, from designs furnished by Mr. Chesebrough for the late Charles Fietcher, of Providence. The Alvina is now owned by A. C. Griscom, of Phila-

The Rainey boat will be built abroad because of the lower cost of labor and material. Mr. Chesebrough sailed from Boston for England on the Ivernia yesthere will be no danger of collisions. The work will be completed by the fall, it superintend the construction of the Stockman, and Bond, for the home team, terday, and will proceed to Scotland to

BERNIE WEFERS HAS THE CHAMP OF SPRINTERS

NEW YORK, July 26 .- "If there is ny athlete in training at the present time who will establish a new world's mark in the 100-yard dash this year it is R. Cloughan," said Bernle Wefers, the noted sprinter and trainer of the Irish-American Athletic Club. Cloughan, who has recently been graduated from Fordham College, has shown great speed this season while representing the Irish-American Athletic Club. He finished second in the 100-yard dash in the junior championship last Saturday and won the 220-yard race. In the former he did not run his best and allowed W. J. Keating, a clumate, to beat him home by less than Cloughan is a youngster, only nineteen years old. He is a big fellow and has the form of a great runner. He is of ideal build, deep-chested and has long legs. Wefers predicts that before the year has ended his charge will have hung up a record of 9 2-5 for the 100-yard dash

COULD HAVE BOUGHT

ly after George G., 2:05%, was bought for $12,500, the news came to Cleveland that there was a fast filly by Lynwood W. in training at San Jose, Cal. It was stated she could then, as four-year-old, beat 2:10 and trot a quar ter in thirty seconds. Doc Tanner heard of it, secured an option on her for C. K. G. Billings and sent a man to California to buy her. When the for C. K. G. # HEYLMUN IS AGAIN

Heylmun defeated Hill in the semi-final round, in the Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament yesterday, in the 1. M. C. A. tenns tournament yesterday, in two straight sets, 6-4, 6-1. Hill did not play in his usual good form, and Heylmun made a runaway match of it.

This victory leaves the same two men in the finals that played last year, Heyl-in the finals that played last year, Heyl-mun and Van Hoesen. Van Hoesen won last year, and the two will probably hook up tomorrow for the championship.

LAUREL, Md., July 25.-Berwyn, of the Suburban League of Prince George ounty, visited Laurel yesterday after oon, and was easily defeated by the Laurel team, 9 to 4.

Kinney, who was on the firing line for Laurel, pitched a steady game, allowing but three hits, while Symnoski, of the Southern Railroad team, was touchwas of the highest order, Kinney making two hits, one a three-bagger, and Bond and Stockman, each a two bag-ger. The fielding of both teams was
